

TAXPAYER INFORMATION ABOUT APPEAL PROCEDURE:

REASONS FOR AN APPEAL: It is the intent of the general assembly to ensure that all taxpayers in Rhode Island are treated equally. Ensuring that taxpayers are treated fairly begins where cities and towns meet defined standards related to performing property values. All Properties should be assessed in a uniform manner, and properties of equal value should be assessed the same. TO DISPUTE YOUR VALUATION OR ASSESSEMENT OR CORRECT ANY OTHER BILLING PROBLEM OR ERROR THAT CAUSED YOUR TAX BILL TO BE HIGHER THAN IT SHOULD BE, YOU MUST APPEAL WITHIN NINETY (90) DAYS FROM THE DATE THE FIRST TAX PAYMENT IS DUE. You may appeal your assessment if your property is (1) Overvalued (assessed value is more than the fair market value as of December 31 in the year of the last update or revaluation for real estate and as of December 31 of the tax year for personal estate for any reason, including clerical and data processing errors. (2) Disproportionately assessed in comparison with other properties. (3) Classified incorrectly as residential, commercial, industrial, or open space, farm or forest. (4) Illegal tax partially or fully exempt. (5) Modified from its condition from the time of the last update or revaluation.

WHO MAY FILE AN APPLICATION: You may file an application if you are (1) the assessed or subsequent (acquiring title after December 31) owner of the property. (2) The owner's administrator or executor. (3) A tenant or group of tenants of real estate paying rent there from and under obligation to pay more than one half of the taxes thereon. (4) A person owning or having an interest in or possession of the property; or (5) a mortgagee if the assessed owner has not applied, in some cases, you must pay all or portion of the tax before you can file.

WHEN AND WHERE APPLICATION MUST BE FILED: Your application must be filed with the local office of tax assessment within NINETY (90) days from the date the first payment is due. THESE DEADLINES CANNOT BE EXTENDED OR WAIVED BY THE ASSESSOR FOR ANY REASON. IF YOUR APPLICATION IS NOT FILED ON TIME, YOU LOSE ALL RIGHTS TO AN ABATMENT AND THE ASSESSOR CANNOT BY LAW GRANT YOU ONE. AN APPLICATION IS FILED WHEN RECEIVED BY THE ASSESSOR'S OFFICE.

PAYMENT OF TAX: Filing an application does not stay the collection of your taxes, in some cases, you must pay the tax when due to appeal the assessor's disposition of your application. Failure to pay the tax assessed when due may also subject you to interest charges and collection action. To avoid any loss of right or additional charges, you should pay the tax as assessed. If abatement is granted and you have already paid the entire year's tax as abated, you will receive a refund or credit for any overpayment.

FILING AN ACCOUNT: Rhode Island General Laws section 44-5-15 requires the annual filing of a true and exact account of all ratable estate owned or possessed by every person and corporate body. The time to file is between December 31 and January 31, or intention to submit declaration by March 15. Failure to file a true and full account, within the prescribed, eliminates the right to appeal to the superior court, subject to the exception provided in Rhode Island General Laws Section 44-5-26(b). No amended returns will be accepted after March 15th. Such notice of your intention must be sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, postmarked no later than 12 o'clock midnight of the last day, January 31. No extensions beyond March 15th can be granted. The form for filing such account may be attained from the city or town assessor.

ASSESSOR DISPOSITION: Upon applying for a reduction in assessment, you may be asked to provide the assessor with further written information about the property and to permit them to inspect it. Failure to provide the information or permit an inspection within thirty (30) days of the request may result in the loss of your appeal rights.

APPEAL: The assessor shall have forty-five (45) days to review, render a decision and notify the taxpayer of the decision. The taxpayer, if still aggrieved, may appeal the decision of the tax assessor to the local board of review, or in the event that the assessor does not render a decision, the taxpayer may appeal to the local tax board of review at the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period. Appeal to the local tax board or review shall be filed not more than thirty (30) days after the assessor renders a decision and notifies the taxpayer, or if the assessor does not render a decision within forty-five (45) days of the filing of the appeal, not more than ninety (90) days after the expiration of the forty-five (45) day period.
